

Regulations of Student Housing Complex of
Siedlce University of Natural Sciences and Humanities

General Provisions

1. The Regulations of the Student Housing Complex of Siedlce University of Natural Sciences and Humanities, hereinafter referred to as the Regulations, set out the general principles for the functioning of the complex, the rights and obligations of the residents, Residents Council and Student Housing Complex Manager.

2. The terms used in the Regulations mean:

1) SD – Student Dormitory;

2) UPH – Siedlce University of Natural Sciences and Humanities;

3) student - UPH student and PhD student;

4) resident - a person accommodated in a dormitory ;

5) SHC – Student Housing Complex ;

6) ASHC - Administration of Student Housing Complex (all SHC employees, including those employed under civil law contracts);

7) SHC Manager - an UPH employee managing the overall activity of the SHC (organizational and economic);

8) RCSD - Residents Council of a Student Dormitory, which represents all SD residents and is a co-host of the SD.

1. The provisions of the Regulations apply to all SD residents and other persons staying in SD or renting rooms in SD.

2. Student Dormitories are administered by UPH authorized employees in cooperation with RCSD.

3. Each person, before being accommodated in SD, is obliged to read the Regulations and sign a relevant statement on compliance with it.

4. UPH shall not be liable for the personal belongings of the residents left in the rooms.
5. The SD may have guest rooms for short-term accommodation of part-time students, guests of the residents and other persons.
6. The UPH Chancellor supervises the SD functioning.

1. RCSD is chosen for one academic year by UPH students, accommodated in each SD, not later than on November 15 of a given year. A protocol from the elections is drawn up and forwarded immediately to ASHC.
2. RCSD consists of a maximum of five persons, including the chairman and the deputy.
3. In case RCSD has not been selected, all decisions regarding residence in SD are made by the SHC Manager.
4. RCSD represents SD residents before the SHC Manager and UPH authorities in all matters concerning SD residents.
5. RCSD in particular:
 - 1) examines the proposals and complaints of SD residents;
 - 2) cooperates with the SHC Manager in matters of accommodation;
 - 3) supervises compliance by residents with the provisions of these Regulations;
 - 4) defines, in consultation with the SHC Manager, the rules for the use of devices, equipment and rooms intended for general use by the residents;
 - 5) cooperates with the UPH authorities and the SHC Manager in the field of implementation of educational tasks and solving social and living problems of SD residents;
 - 6) organizes the work of residents for SD and its surroundings;
 - 7) ensures respect for property, maintaining order and cleanliness within the SD.

The award of accommodation in SD

1. Place in SD is awarded by the SHC Manager at the student's request, submitted in writing or electronically through the UsosWeb system (www.usosweb.uph.edu.pl). The application form is set out in Appendix 1 to the Regulations.
2. Every UPH student has the right to apply for a place in SD.
3. The applications referred to in point 1 § 4 shall be made starting from May 1 of the year preceding the given academic year.

4. Students of the first year receive Information about being awarded a place in SD in writing, and students of subsequent years in the form of a message posted on the website: www.domystudenckie.uph.edu.pl.

5. In the event of resignation from the assigned place in the SD before the beginning of the academic year, the student is obliged to notify ASHC thereof not later than by September 15.

6. A place in SD is awarded to students for a maximum of 9 months.

Accommodation in SD

1. A person entitled to accommodation in SD:

1) has been awarded a place in SD;

2) has signed a lease agreement referred to in point 3 § 5 .

2. In SD there are two types of accommodation:

1) short-term - up to and including 30 days;

2) long-term - for a period of over 30 days.

3. Accommodation takes place on the basis of a lease agreement signed by the resident and an authorized person from UPH. The lease agreement form is set out in Appendix 2 to the Regulations.

4. The room is issued and returned based on the handover protocol. The handover protocol form is set out in Appendix 3 to the Regulations.

5. The room intended for accommodation is prepared for living and equipped with technically efficient equipment and furniture.

6. When lodging, the resident receives a resident card, bed linen and necessary room equipment. The resident card entitles to enter the SD area, collect keys and equipment from the reception.

7. The SD resident is financially responsible for damages to the property made available to him, including bed linen, equipment and other room facilities received.

8. If it is not possible to determine the person responsible for the damage, the residents of the room are jointly and severally liable for the damage caused, on the terms specified in the lease agreements.

9. The SHC Manager or a person authorized by him, in the presence of a RCSD representative, has the right to periodically review the state of the room.

10. In justified cases, ASHC (as well as employees of the Inventory Section, if an inventory is required) have the right to inspect and check the condition of segments and rooms, also in the absence of residents, after informing them.

11. ASHC may enter the room in the absence of the residents in case of events related to:

1) threat to life or health of SD residents;

2) danger of damage to property;

3) water supply and electricity network failure;

4) fire hazard;

5) removal of current technical faults reported by residents of the room.

12. ASHC shall immediately inform the SHC Manager about the occurrence of one of the events referred to in point 11 § 5 and the entry into the room during the absence of its residents.

13. Residents have the right to change their room, with the consent of the SHC Manager. When changing the room, the rules for checking out and checking in again shall apply accordingly.

14. If it is necessary to optimize the use of places, a resident (especially from a partly unused room) may be moved to another room, based on the decision of the SHC Manager. The resident is obliged to move to the indicated room within 3 days of receiving a transfer notification.

 - 20) seal or damage the fire-fighting system devices.
4. The SD resident is fully responsible for the property made available to them and is obliged to return it in a non-deteriorated condition.
5. A resident / residents of a room or the entire floor cover the costs of an unjustified arrival of the Fire Brigade resulting from their fault.

1. A SD resident is obliged to make timely payments for a rented room / segment. In case of short-term accommodation, payments are made on the day of accommodation, and in case of long-term accommodation - by the 15th of each month.
2. A resident of SD has the right to resign from his accommodation in SD during the academic year, subject to a 14-day notice period and notification to ASHC of the day of his departure.
3. The accommodation settlement period lasts one month, it is possible to settle payments in half-month periods. If the period of residence is shorter than one month and does not start or end at the beginning or in the middle of the month, the number of days of residence is taken into account: for accommodation up to 15 days, the fee is half the applicable rate, over 15 days – full rate.

Eviction

1. A resident may lose the right to a place in SD and is subject to eviction in the event of:
 - 1) failure to comply with applicable formalities related to accommodation, within 14 days from the agreed date of accommodation;
 - 2) the end of the period for which accommodation has been granted;
 - 3) validation of the decision to remove a student from the list of UPH students;
 - 4) arrears in payment of rent for at least two periods of payment.
2. Eviction takes place on the basis of the decision of the SHC Manager, within the period specified in the lease agreement.
3. A resident may be evicted immediately in the event of:
 - 1) not checking out within the period referred to in point 2;
 - 2) gross violation of the principles of social coexistence in SD;
 - 3) serious infringement of the provisions of these Regulations, in particular those made under the influence of alcohol or intoxicants, including drugs;
 - 4) confirmation that an unauthorized person has resided in his place.
4. A resident may also be evicted immediately if UPH needs to provide services for defense purposes under the Act on Universal Duty to Defend the Republic of Poland.

5. Immediate eviction means the obligation to move out of SD within 24 hours of receiving the decision.

6. Eviction does not release the resident from the obligation to pay any outstanding liabilities and account for the entrusted property.

7. In the event that the resident does not comply with the obligation to leave SD, ASHC, in consultation with RCSD, has the right to call the appropriate law enforcement services to remove an unlawful person from the building.

8. ASHC checks the condition of the room, including its facilities and cleanliness, and prepares a hand-over protocol before checking out a resident.

9. Before checking out of SD, a resident is obliged to:

1) return given or rented equipment;

2) hand over the room / segment and its equipment in good condition based on the hand-over protocol;

3) leave the room clean and tidy;

4) settle any arrears in fees;

5) take all items owned by him;

6) give back the resident card.

10. In the event that a resident leaves a room without settlement, ASHC takes over the room / segment collectively in the presence of a RCSD representative. In the event that room facilities are missing or are damaged, a resident is charged with the costs of buying, repairing, cleaning or renovating. A protocol from the administrative check-out is drawn up and personal belongings of the resident, if left behind, are collectively secured by ASHC and stored for a period of time specified in the lease agreement concluded with the resident. After the ineffective expiration of this period, they are destroyed by a commission or transferred to public benefit institutions.

Visiting rules in SD

1. Visits in SD can take place from 8.00 to 22.00.
